Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/17

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5:

Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

 Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

□ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

□ Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7:	Liquidation
$245	filing fee
$75	administrative fee
+ $15	trustee surcharge
$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft:

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

+ $550 administrative fee

$1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCredit AndDebtCounselors.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list. Case 18-18278 Doc 1 Filed 06/27/18 Entered 06/27/18 17:25:03 Desc Main Document Page 46 of 56

Case No.

ATTORNEY-CLIENT AGREEMENT STATEMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 2016(b)

1. The undersigned client (Debtor) and Dale W. Daemicke (Attorney), pursuant to rule 2016(b), Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, agree and disclose the compensation paid or promised to be paid by client to attorney as follows: For legal services client agrees to pay a minimum attorney fee as follows: (minimum fee, nonrefundable and not cancelable, plus filing fee) plus additional amounts as billed for services rendered at $195.00/hour of attorneys time and $85.00 per hour for paralegal/legal assistant's time, plus costs. Time and expenses are computed from the beginning of first contact with attorney's office. For preparing the Bankruptcy Petition, Schedules, Statement of Affairs, and attachments, client has paid attorney:

- 2. Legal services include: analysis o financial situation advice and assistance to client in determining whether to file a petition under Title 11 of the United States Code; review of documents delivered to attorney by client; preparation of Petition, Schedules, Statement of Affairs, and appearance at one Section 341 Hearing (Meeting of Creditors).
- 3. For additional services beyond paragraph 2, and for services exceeding those which have been paid for at the hourly rate, above, client agrees to pay $195.00 per hour for attorney's time plus costs. Additional services to be paid for by client include, but are not limited to, motions, hearings, consultations, document scanning, pleadings, correspondences, reaffirmations, redemptions, examinations under oath, contested matters, including court appearances, filing responses or objections, negotiations with the trustee or other party, and all legal services beyond those specified in paragraph 2. Specifically, Attorney does not agree to appear in adversary proceedings, examinations or motions without additional fees paid by the client. Prior to deciding to file the case, client has spent time with the attorney for consultation, which included advice on options, review of documents and for exploring eligibility for various kinds of relief under the law.
- 4. Costs to be reimbursed to attorney and paid by client in addition to attorney fees include filing fees to the court, storage, copy and scanning costs, long distance phone calls, mail, fax charges and all other necessary out of pocket expenses incurred by attorney.
- 5. No portion of attorneys fees and costs that are paid or agreed to be paid may be cancelled or refunded. All fees and costs paid are considered fully earned compensation to the attorney for the responsibility of undertaking representation of the client—understands that Attorney's acceptance of undertaking representation of the client means that significant resources of atty. will be committed to the case and that other work the attorney would do will be set aside, delayed or turned down. All money paid or agreed to be paid by client is fully earned by Attorney and no money is refunded nor may client cancel the agreement regarding payment of attorney fees and costs.

- 6. Debtor(s) shall retain all pertinent original source documents. Attorney may, but need not, obtain a credit report and include the debt information from the credit report on the schedules. Client is responsible to monitor creditor claims that may be filed with the court or trustee in this case.
- 7. The source of payments made and agreed to be paid in the future was and will be from earnings, wages, earned government entitlements unless otherwise specified below.
- 8. The undersigned has received no transfer, assignment or pledge of property of the debtor unless specified below.
- 9. Attorney has not shared or agreed to share with any other entity other than members of his own law firm any compensation paid or to be paid unless specified below.
- 10. The undersigned client may (but need not) retain Attorney or a different firm or attorney for assistance in matters other than those services that have been paid for and agreed to in this agreement.
- a. Client may retain services of specialists in other areas of legal expertise such as tax, divorce, contracts, property, debt collection, credit reporting, mortgages and finance, business, property appraisers, certified public accountants or other experts. Client understands that expertise in other areas such as these are not paid for or included in Attorney's responsibilities.
- b. Client understands that the schedules of assets require the client's honest statement of the value of all property and assets owned by the client. Attorney has no special expertise as to how to arrive at the correct current value of property and assets. Client may hire the services of an appraiser if the client is unsure of value or if the client has insufficient knowledge of the value of client's assets or property.
- c. Client understands that research may be done into the status of any tax debts and tax consequences of filing bankruptcy, that without the time and expense of such research, the right to cancel or discharge certain tax debts may be lost or affected adversely by the timing of filing the bankruptcy case. Client may retain the services of a tax specialist, a business specialist, a certified public accountant, or other specialist to advise the client as to the tax consequences of bankruptcy at this time or the timing of filing bankruptcy as it relates to taxes. Client elects to proceed to file bankruptcy immediately even though tax debts may not be discharged or cancelled by filing bankruptcy at this time.
- d. In the event a joint petition is filed by husband and wife, clients agree that there is no conflict of interest for Attorney to represent both clients at this time for matters involved. Both clients agree that representing both at the same time will not adversely affect the relationship of Attorney with either client and that the clients' interests are not conflicting such as to adversely affect the individual interests in this case; Each client understands that he or she may consult with his or her own attorney (not in this law firm) regarding any matter that may involve a conflict between the clients, and each should do so if any interest of the clients are in conflict. In the event Attorney withdraws from or terminates representation due to conflict of interest between the clients, there will be no refund or reduction of attorney fees and costs.

- e. In the event the client has not been a resident of California for more than 2 years, the client is advised to retain the services of a qualified bankruptcy attorney who has knowledge of the exemption law of the state where the client resided prior to 2 years before the filing of this case. Attorney is not qualified or knowledgeable or licenced to practice in or concerning other states laws and rules for exempt property. Bankruptcy law allows a debtor to keep exempt assets, and such exemptions are determined by the law where the debtor resided prior to 2 years before the petition is filed. The attorney fee paid for this case does not include the cost of or retaining or consulting with any other lawyer or firm from this or any other state.
- 11. Additional services for which client has not yet paid attorney may also include assistance with reaffirmation agreements (Chapter 7) on debts client wishes to continue paying, preparation and filing of amendments to schedules, appearing at court hearings, examinations under oath, representing the client in adversary proceedings, motions or conversions.

Note: Paragraphs 12-15 apply to cases under Chapter 7 only.

- 12. Client anticipates that payment be made to attorney if client wishes to reaffirm debts: $200 per reaffirmation agreement. Client anticipates ______ reaffirmation agreement(s) may be desired for an additional attorney fee of $0 ______ disclosed in this case and to be paid by the client to the Attorney at the time of signing the reaffirmation agreement(s).
- 13. Client understands that a reaffirmation agreement is a legally binding contract to continue paying on such a debt and, upon default, client may lose the collateral for the loan and be subject to suit for any deficiency on the underlying debt and other remedies allowed by law. Client also understands that reaffirmation agreements should not be signed if there is any possibility of a hardship on the client or anyone dependent on the client. It is further understood that once signed, the agreement must be promptly filed with the Court. Typically the reaffirmation will be signed by the Client and Attorney and forwarded to the creditor for signing and filing with the Court. Client understands that a motion for court approval of the reaffirmation agreement may be filed and brought before the Bankruptcy Judge for decision without the necessity of counsel. It is the client's duty to reaffirm the debt, if the client so chooses, within 30 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors. Attorney may refuse to sign the reaffirmation agreement in which case it would be necessary for the judge to approve the agreement in order for it to be valid. If the circumstances are such that the debtor may not afford the payments required under the proposed reaffirmation agreement, the attorney may not sign the agreement and the judge may not likely approve it.

14. Signing a reaffirmation agreement is voluntary and is not required, but once signed it is a legally binding contract. It may be revoked in writing within 60 days or up to the time of discharge in Bankruptcy, whichever is later by writing a letter of revocation to the Court and to the creditor.

- 15. It is an option of the client to redeem the collateral subject to a secured loan, such as a car loan, by paying the creditor the retail replacement value of the collateral. Replacement value is defined under 11 U.S.C. § 506 as the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering its age and condition. For any such redemption procedure, client agrees to pay an additional attorney fee of $750 per redemption which is hereby disclosed in this proceeding. Different rules apply to cases converted to Chapter 7 from Chapter 13.
- 16. Deeds of trust, mortgages, security interests and other liens on property are the typical kinds of debts which are to be paid by client so that the client can retain possession and ownership of a home, vehicle, or other type of property. Client understands that in order for such property to be retained by the client, the Deed of trust, mortgage, security interest or other lien must be valid in bankruptcy and the fair market value for the property must not exceed what has been stated by the client in the schedules of assets. In general in order for a deed of trust or mortgage to be valid in bankruptcy it must be duly recorded within 30 days of execution or more than 90 days prior to filing bankruptcy. If the trust deed or mortgage is not so properly recorded it may be invalid and the property subject to sale by the bankruptcy court. For vehicles and mobile homes purchased in California, liens on such vehicles and mobile homes must be perfected through the California Department of Vehicles (D.M.V.) by prompt action by the lender. If such liens are not registered with the D.M.V., they are subject to invalidation by the bankruptcy court and the underlying vehicle or mobile home may be sold by the bankruptcy court. It is therefore urged by Attorney "that the client review the recorded trust deeds, mortgages, and liens prior to filing bankruptcy to be sure that such encumbrances are valid in bankruptcy and that the property may be retained by client. In the event the client wishes to file bankruptcy before obtaining documents to determine the validity of a lien, client waives any claim against Attorney in the event a lien is declared invalid and property or assets of the client are sold by the bankruptcy court.
- 17. It is client's responsibility to supply all necessary information prior to filing the case. In the event that additional debts are added later or if any amendment to schedules is necessary, it is disclosed and client agrees to pay $200 per amendment as an additional attorney fee plus any applicable filing fees, mailing, copy and other expenses. The undersigned client states that all information supplied on the schedules of assets, debts, income and expenses is true and correct. Client understands that failure to disclose all information requested in the Schedules and Statement of Affairs may result in criminal and/ or civil penalties. Client therefore agrees to review all documents at signing and to again review them when a copy is sent to the client at the address stated on the petition. Client agrees to update or amend all documents as needed to ensure completeness and correctness of all documents.
- 18. Client understands that certain debts may not be discharged (cancelled) by the bankruptcy and that certain assets may be lost if they are not exempt. Assets may also be lost if they are not disclosed or if the current values are not accurately stated on the Schedules. Client understands that most taxes, educational loans, criminal fines, debts incurred by fraud (including misuse of credit cards), intentional misconduct or wrongful acts, obligations to a condominium or homeowners association, money borrowed to pay taxes, and obligations under a divorce or support decreed may not be discharged (cancelled) by filing bankruptcy. Usage of credit within 90 days prior to filing bankruptcy may give rise to a presumption of fraud. Property of the debtor remains subject to obligations owed for support, alimony and other domestic obligations. Client is advised that even though a debt may be discharged in bankruptcy, the client's bank or credit union deposits might be frozen or taken by that bank or credit union if it is owed money.
